Dear Bill,

I was really glad to get your letter because I haven't heard from you for ages.

In your letter you ask me about my future career. I'm happy that you have already made up your mind about your job. Translator is a very interesting profession. But as for me, I haven't decided yet. I need more time to determine it.

It's possible that I'll work as a doctor. Helping people is very exciting. Maybe I'll be a vet, because I am fond of pets and animals. But my parents want me to be a teacher, because they are teachers too.

By the way, travelling to other countries is my dream! I'd like to see different sights and speak to other people, taste their food. What country would you visit first? What transport do you prefer? Where will you live?

It's time to finish now.

All the best,
Masha.

Hi, Bill

Thanks a lot for your letter. It was pleasure to read it.

In your letter you want to know about my career, I'd like to tell you that my dream is to become a teacher of English. I learn it all my life and I want to teach it to students. It's good that you decided on your career too.

I'd like to ask you some questions about your future travel, what continents and countries do you want to visit? Where will you stay: in a hotel or in a flat? Will you take any photos?

I have to stop now, my mum wants me to do some shopping.
Best wishes,
Tanya.
